Introduction to Social Research-E2
Final Report, Instructions

Stéphane HEIM

Topic:
- A topic in relation with labor relations and/or the automotive industry.
- This report should be written as a research project that you will launch in the future.
- You are asked to describe this research project based on the literature review, the positioning of your own research and its approach to the problem, and the methodology you will adopt in the future to gather data.
- You don't need to develop a section based on the analysis of the data.

Format:
- PDF file, Times New Roman, 12
- 1000~1500 words
- English

Submission:
- Deadline: July 29, 2025 (Tuesday)
- PandA［2025 前期水 3］Introduction to Social Research-E2 Dropbox

Structure of the Final Report:

First Section: Introduction
- Topic, empirical & theoretical context,
- Research question, hypothesis, and research project
- Structure of the report

Second Section: Literature review
- Presentation of selected Scientific literature,
- Comparison of previous researches & the way problems are defined,
- Description of your own perspective/focus

Third Section: Research Methodology
- Presentation of the research methodology, and the reason why you chose this approach,
- Discussion of the merits/demerits of your methodology

Conclusion
- Synthesis of your report and this research project,
- But also the remaining and unsolved problems/questions

List of references